

$1,500 scholarships to be awarded by The San Francisco Peninsula Press Club

April 30, 2009 is the deadline for submitting entries to the 2009 scholarship competition sponsored by the San Francisco Peninsula Press Club.

Competition is open to high school, community college, college and university students from the 11 Bay Area counties who are planning a career in print, broadcast or photo journalism.

Typically the San Francisco Peninsula Press Club selects one high school student and one college student to receive the $1,500 scholarships named for Herb Caen, the late San Francisco Chronicle columnist.

Scholarship funds will be paid to the schools the winners plan to attend, or are attending, to defray any college-related expenses.

Print and photo entrants should send:

- A one-page resume.
- Three to five clippings mounted on letter-sized white paper; photos CD; and video on DVD-R.
- A letter of recommendation from an instructor in Journalism, Communications or English.

Entries should be sent to:

San Francisco Peninsula Press Club
Attention: Scholarships
4317 Camden Ave.
San Mateo CA 94403-5007

Finalists will be interviewed in person by the Press Club's Scholarship Committee. Winners will be honored at the Press Club's 32nd Annual Greater Bay Area Journalism Awards Dinner June 6, 2009.
